

Internal Medicine Specialists

Rob Foale BSc, BVetMed, DSAM, DECVIM-CA, MRCVS

European Recognised Specialist in Veterinary Internal Medicine

Rob graduated in 1996 having previously completed a BSc in Physiology and Pharmacology. After 4 years in practice he undertook a Residency in Small Animal Medicine at Cambridge and obtained his RCVS and ECVIM Diplomas. He is a member of the American Veterinary Cancer Society, the European Society of Veterinary Oncology, the British Small Animal Veterinary Association and the Small Animal Medicine Society. His particular areas of interest are medical oncology, endocrinology and immune-mediated disease.

Simon Tappin MA, VetMB, CertSAM, DECVIM-CA, MRCVS

European & RCVS Recognised Specialist in Veterinary Internal Medicine

After graduating in 2002, Simon spent 2 years in practice before taking up a Residency in Small Animal Medicine and Intensive Care at the University of Bristol. He gained European Diploma in 2008 and is an RCVS recognised Specialist in Small Animal Medicine. Simon's research interests include the prevalence of the multi-drug resistance gene and its implications in disease aetiology. His clinical interests lie in the fields of critical care, gastroenterology, endocrinology and minimally invasive procedures.

Jon Wray BVSc DSAM, CertVC, MRCVS

RCVS Recognised Specialist in Small Animal Medicine (Internal Medicine)

Jon graduated in 1996 and, after 2 years in mixed practice, completed a Residency in Small Animal Medicine. He has subsequently worked in private referral practice and academia. He is an RCVS Diplomate and Recognised Specialist in Small Animal Medicine as well as holding the RCVS Certificate in Veterinary Cardiology. His particular areas of interest are endocrinology, cardiorespiratory medicine, endoscopy, dysphagia and bleeding/thrombotic disorders.

ECVIM Residents

Nele Van den Steen DVM, MRCVS

ECVIM Resident in internal Medicine

Nele graduated from the University of Ghent, Belgium in 2002 and completed an Internship and a Senior Clinical Training Scholarship. She has a strong interest in oncology but is interested in all aspects of small animal internal medicine.

Aida Gómez DVM, MRCVS

ECVIM Resident in Internal Medicine

Aida graduated from the University of Santiago, Spain in 2003 and worked in general practice before completing an Internship at the University of Cambridge. Along with Nele, Aida is pursuing a Residency Programme in Internal Medicine.

For advice on internal medicine cases
or to make an appointment:

Dick White Referrals
Station Farm
London Road
Six Mile Bottom
Suffolk CB8 0UH

Tel: 01638 572012

Fax: 01638 572013

Email: medicine@dickwhitereferrals.com

Web: www.dickwhitereferrals.com

